Synopsis

Bicycle Bride is a witty story about a rebellious young Indian-American woman, Beena, whose family still clings to old school beliefs about gender roles and marriage for women. Beena pursues her dreams of freedom - but her stern mother has other ideas, including arranging a marriage for her daughter. Beena has a best friend, Mary Jane, a Caucasian girl who supports her in every way. When Beena meets a man from Sweden, James Dean (played by renowned Swedish actor Andreas Wilson) she is immediately smitten by his European charm, Will Beena give in to what her cultural heritage says, is right? Or will she follow her heart and possibly lose her family instead?
