Synopsis

Petit-Jean is 11 years old. He has discovered his two childish uncles, Arthur and Andre. Arthur is a model citizen. Andre has the most famous hands in town. Because they always take things, that don't belong to him.

"When chickens in town go missing, Andre is suddenly arrested, but he denies it. That's because Petit-Jean secretly committed the crime. When Arthur is thrown in jail without evidence, the entire town goes upside down, the towns people take sides, adultery is committed, and Petit Jean enjoys the most memorable time in his life in this Cannes Film Festival hit."
