SYNOPSIS:

A 22 year old gay filmmaker talks about his work and personal life with an unseen person behind the camera. Also included are four of his short films. "Hysterio Passio" which evokes images of men's passions. "Matricide," in which a lawyer asks a young gay man why he killed his mother. "Key in the Heart," in which an Asian man in drag hunts vampires. And in "Fall, 1990" college students meet their roommates. "Flow" begins with a satiric look at the vectors of viruses and ends with a chat with our fictional filmmaker's hip mother.

DVD SPECIAL FEATURES:

Chapter Selection, Trailer, Featurette "Making Flow", Film Notes, Director's Bio, Still Gallery.

"His way with symbolism... is sure-handed, recalling at its best, classic surrealist movies and their impenetrable yet perfectly knowable truths. And so these shorts... feel emphatically cohesive and immediate."

- Hazel-Dawn Dumpert, LA Weekly

"Each one reveals a vibrant cinematic imagination and a detached self-awareness... What ensues is edgy, wryly amusing, tender, wise and credible."

- Kevin Thomas, The Los Angeles Times
